3. Contract language and means of communication

This pre-contractual information shall be provided to the Customer in French. All communication between Vivid and the Customer during the term of the contract shall be in French.

The customer can contact Vivid as follows:

- via e-mail (imprint@vivid.money)
- by letter to the postal address mentioned under point 1. or
- via the chat function provided in the Vivid app.

4. Essential characteristics of the services

4.1 Vivid Bank Account Access Services

Vivid allows customers to access a bank account ("Vivid Bank Account") via the Vivid App. All Vivid Bank Accounts are provided by Solaris.

4.1.1 Pockets

Vivid offers the customer the possibility to open and manage so-called "pockets". Pockets consist of one or more Vivid bank accounts, which may include foreign currency accounts.

When the Vivid bank account registration is successfully completed, Vivid generates by default a pocket ("main pocket") consisting of a SEPA-linked bank account denominated in EUR. "SEPA-linked" means that the respective account has its own bank account number and IBAN and can be used for incoming and outgoing SEPA transfers.

The customer can open additional Pockets in the Vivid App, each of which includes at least one Vivid bank account. All Pockets are accessible via the Vivid App.

Vivid provides the Bank Account Access Services through the Vivid App to enable the Customer to access the underlying Vivid Bank Accounts, initiate payments and take other actions.

In addition, the customer can manage his accounts and pockets at any time via the Vivid app.

In addition, Customer has the option to share its Pockets with other customers of Vivid ("User") who have an active Vivid Bank Account via the "Pocket Sharing" feature in the Vivid App as a shared Pocket ("Shared Pocket"). Through this, the Customer grants the User a bank power of attorney authorizing the User to do so,

- view the account balance and transactions on the Shared Pocket,
- view the account balance and transactions on the Shared Pocket initiated only by the user,
- if requested by the customer, to access account statements for the Shared Pocket,
- Make currency changes between different accounts for the Common Pocket,
- Link a Vivid debit card to the Shared Pocket,
- Transfer funds to and from the Common Pocket (i) from and to other Pockets, (ii) through SEPA Credit Transfers, or (iii) through use of a linked Vivid Debit Card; and
- Inspect other information related to the Common Pocket.

Any User authorized by the Customer may dispose of the entire balance of the Shared Pocket. Any action or transaction by a User with respect to the Shared Pocket shall be deemed to be an action or transaction on behalf of and for the account of the Customer. The Shared Pocket is not a joint account.

The Customer may revoke the authority granted to a User for the Shared Pocket at any time via the "Deny Access" function in the Vivid App. This will have no effect on the actions or transactions authorized by the User up to that point. A user may also leave a Shared Pocket, which will cause the corresponding power of attorney to expire.

4.1.2 Vivid subscription payment management services

The Vivid App allows Customer to manage recurring payments in the form of standing orders, SEPA direct debits and debit card payments ("Vivid Subscription Payment Management Services"). Customer may (i) manage standing order settings, (ii) revoke an executed one-time direct debit payment transaction or (iii) object to a pending debit card transaction.

4.1.3 Foreign currency accounts

The customer can also open one or more foreign currency accounts with Solaris via the Vivid app.

A Foreign Currency Account may be used for (i) buying and selling the relevant currency against Euro and holding foreign currency funds in the relevant Account, (ii) transactions with a VividCard linked to the Foreign Currency Account Pocket, (iii) transferring funds in the foreign currency to other Vivid customers who have a Foreign Currency Account in the same currency, but which cannot be used to make or receive SEPA or other transfers.

4.2 Vivid Debit Card Access Services

Vivid provides customers with access to debit cards ("SuperCards") via the Vivid app. The SuperCards are issued by Solaris.

4.2.1 Vivid Cards

A SuperCard can be either

- be a physical VividCard: here the customer is provided with two VISA debit cards
 - (i) a physical VISA Debit Card without PAN (Primary Account Number) on the surface of the Card, delivered to the Customer and intended for payments where the Card must be presented, and
 - (ii) a VISA virtual debit card intended for e-commerce purchases without card presence, or

- be a virtual VividCard: the customer is provided with a VISA debit card. This card is intended for e-commerce and for certain contactless transactions that require the card to be presented, such as Google Pay or Apple Pay

(together the "VividCards").

In the Vivid App, Customer can see the following information about its VividCards (as applicable):

- (i) for a physical VividCard: the last 4 digits of the PAN and CVV of the physical Visa Debit Card and PAN, CVV and expiration dates of the virtual Visa Debit Card; and
- (ii) for a virtual VividCard: PAN, CVV and expiration date.

The Customer can manage the VividCards in the Vivid App, i.e. activate, lock, unlock or close the VividCards.

4.2.2 Functions of the VividCards

Each VividCard is linked to a specific Pocket. When opening the first Pocket in the Vivid App, the Customer will receive a physical VividCard linked to the Pocket, denominated in Euro and capable of SEPA transactions.

The VividCards can be linked to other Pockets of the customer or to Pockets for which the customer has received authorization. Transactions and bookings with the VividCard are billed and settled with the Pocket to which the VividCard is linked, in accordance with the specifications set forth in detail in the Solaris List of Prices and Services, which can be found at <https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/> and www.vivid.money.

4.3 Vivid Multi-Currency Trading Services (Investment Brokerage)

As a tied agent of Solaris, Vivid currently brokers transactions regarding the acquisition and sale of financial instruments in foreign currencies. After 28 September 2023, these services will be provided solely by Vivid's group company Vivid Money B.V.

In addition, Vivid prepares the respective orders with regard to payment transactions in foreign currencies and transmits them to Solaris.

Solaris maintains any foreign currency accounts for the customer. The foreign currencies offered by Solaris are listed in the frontend in your Vivid App and at <https://mobile-static-prod.px019.net/docs/vividmoney/en-de/currencies.pdf>.

4.4 Operation of Vivid App and Vivid Web

4.4.1 Vivid App

Vivid operates the Vivid App through which customers can access Vivid bank account access services, Vivid debit card access services, and Vivid Multi-Currency Trading services (investment brokerage) offered by Vivid as a tied agent, as the case may be, of Solaris.

Through the Vivid App, customers can also access the Vivid Invest App, which is technically and regulatory independent from the Vivid App and operated by Vivid Invest GmbH.

Vivid is solely responsible for the services provided through the Vivid App, but not for the services provided through the Vivid Invest App.

4.4.2 Vivid Web

Vivid operates a website ("Vivid Web") at <https://vivid.money/>. Vivid Web contains general information about the services provided by Vivid (or a partner with whom Vivid works specifically for this purpose). However, Vivid Web does not provide Customer with access to the Services provided by Vivid. Vivid Web also contains information about the services provided by Vivid Invest GmbH, for which Vivid Invest GmbH is solely responsible.

5. Premium and Standard Offers - unified contract

The services offered by Vivid are available to the Customer as a Standard Offer ("Standard") or Premium Offer ("Prime"). These offers are part of a uniform framework agreement. Under this framework agreement, the Premium Offer is initially available to the Customer for a three-month trial period. After that, the customer can choose between the Standard Offer and the Premium Offer as desired. Switching between the Offers (e.g. opting out of the Prime) is possible by a mere notification of the Customer via the Vivid App without observing a deadline. For details on how the (framework) contract comes into effect, compare item 6.2.3 below.

The Premium Offer offers a wider range of services. Details on the specific components of the Standard and Premium Offers and on the respective costs and fees, which in the case of the Premium Offer include a monthly usage fee, for example, can be found in Solaris's list of prices and services (<https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>).

Upon registration, the Customer will be classified as a Premium Member by default for a trial period of three months and can use the services of the Premium Offer without Vivid charging the monthly usage fee for the Premium Offer. There is no legal claim to a Premium Offer during the trial period.

Before the end of the trial period, Vivid offers the Customer via the app to keep the Premium Offer. If the Customer decides to do so, the Customer can continue to use the Premium Offer. The costs and fees shown in the list of prices and services (<https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>) apply. If the Customer decides to discontinue the Premium Offer, Vivid will classify the Customer for the Standard Offer. The services and costs included in the Standard Offer are shown in the list of prices and services (<https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>).

6. Information on how the contract is concluded

6.1 Access to the Vivid App

Access to the Vivid app requires registration.

Only consumers (i.e. natural persons who intend to use the Vivid App only for purposes not related to their professional or commercial activities) who are at least 18 years of age, have a permanent residence in the Federal Republic of Germany or another member state of the European Union and who operate in their own name and for their own account and who are not subject to U.S. taxation within the meaning of the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) may apply for registration. As mentioned in section 6.2.2, by clicking the corresponding button, the Applicant makes a binding offer to Vivid to conclude the (framework) agreement for the use of the services offered by Vivid (see section 2.1 above).

At the same time, the Applicant submits an offer to Solaris to use the corresponding services of Solaris.

Vivid points out that the Applicant incurs costs upon conclusion of the contract (both if he/she makes use of the Standard Offer (ongoing costs) and if he/she makes use of the Premium Offer (including during the test phase)). Details can be found in Solaris's list of prices and services (<https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>).

Vivid transmits the Applicant's contract offer to Solaris as messenger.

Vivid declares receipt of the Applicant's contractual declarations to Vivid and Solaris by enabling Vivid to further register the Applicant.

Vivid shall communicate to the Applicant the acceptance declarations on the part of Vivid and Solaris by means of a corresponding message in the App.

7. Processing of customer orders

The Customer may place orders in relation to the services offered by Vivid via the Vivid App ("Customer Orders"). Once a Customer Order is included in the Vivid App, it is irrevocable unless revocation is approved by Vivid on a case-by-case basis.

If the conditions for processing Customer Orders are met, Vivid will process the Customer Order on the Business Day and at the time specified for processing the relevant type of Customer Order in Solaris's List of Prices and Services and confirm the processing to the Customer. If the Customer Order cannot be processed, Vivid will notify the Customer accordingly.

8. total price of services/financial services, including all price components

By entering into a contract with Vivid, the Customer incurs ongoing costs in the form of a monthly usage fee only in the Premium Offer. The amount of the usage fee is set out in Solaris's list of prices and services (<https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>). There are no ongoing costs in the Standard Offer.

Separate costs may be incurred for the use of individual services in both the Standard and Premium Offers. A detailed breakdown of the individual cost items with regard to the Standard and Premium Offer can be found in Solaris's List of Prices and Services (<https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>).

The exchange rate for foreign currency transactions is displayed in the Vivid app before the exchange is executed.

Vivid will not charge any fees for using the Vivid App or contacting Vivid via remote communication (e.g. email or chat function). The terms and conditions of the respective telecommunication provider apply.

9. Costs and taxes that are not paid or invoiced through Vivid.

Solaris and Vivid will not withhold taxes on foreign currency transactions (multi-currency transactions). The Customer should be aware that profits from foreign currency transactions may be subject to income tax.

10. Risk notice

The investment brokerage services offered by Vivid as a tied agent of Solaris in the area of foreign currency in the form of the Vivid Multi-Currency Trading Services relate to the purchase and sale of financial instruments which, due to their specific characteristics or the transactions to be carried out, are subject to specific risks and whose price is subject to fluctuations in the financial market over which Vivid and Solaris have no control. Income generated in the past is not an indicator of future income.

11. Limitation of the period of validity of the information provided, in particular the period of validity of the offer and the period of validity of the indicated prices

11.1 Valid list of prices and services

If the Customer uses service offered by Vivid, they enter into separate contractual relationships with Solaris. Details about the costs and fees charged by Solaris can be found at <https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>.

11.2 Exchange rate for card transactions in non-EUR currencies and for the purchase of foreign currencies

The exchange rate for card transactions in non-EUR currencies and the purchase of foreign currencies is composed of

- the basic exchange rate and
- a surcharge.

The base exchange rate is based on the exchange rates provided by Morningstar Real-Time Data Limited, London, which are based on ECB exchange rates where available. For card transactions, the base exchange rate is based on the VISA exchange rate. In all cases, the base exchange rate is calculated in real time. It always reflects the rates applicable at the time of the transaction.

The applied surcharge results from Solaris's price and service schedule in effect from time to time. For purchases of a currency, the markup may be increased in cases where the purchase is made outside the working hours of the relevant foreign exchange market (the percentage up to which the markup may be increased is given in Solaris's current list of prices and services (<https://solarisgroup.com/customer-information/>)). When purchasing a non-EUR currency, the Customer can see the exact exchange rate before making the purchase. For card transactions, the exchange rate can be seen on the account statement. The exchange rate is also available at <https://vivid.money/de-de/fx-calculator>.

12. Details regarding payment and performance

All costs and fees are paid by the Customer directly through the Vivid app. All amounts due will be transferred from the Customer's Vivid bank account.

13. Right of withdrawal

Upon conclusion of the (framework) contract for the services offered by Vivid (cf. item 5. above), the Customer has a right of revocation. Details of the Customer's right of revocation are set forth in Section II.

The Customer has no right of revocation for individual trading orders (Vivid Multi-Currency Trading services (investment brokerage)). These are orders for the purchase and sale of financial instruments whose price depends on fluctuations in the financial market over which Vivid and Solaris have no influence and which may occur within the revocation period (section 312g (2) sentence 1 no. 8 BGB).

Vivid points out that the Customer may terminate a paid Premium Membership at any time by notifying Vivid via the Vivid App without notice. Upon termination of the Premium Membership, the Customer automatically switches to the Standard Membership.

14. Minimum term of the contract

The contract has no minimum term.

15. Contractual termination provisions and, if applicable, contractual penalties

The Customer may terminate the entire business relationship with Vivid or individual parts thereof at any time without notice. Vivid will also act as a receiving messenger to transmit the Customer's termination notice to Solaris.

Vivid may terminate the entire business relationship with the Customer, or individual parts thereof, at any time by giving ordinary notice of at least two months.

The right of the Customer and Vivid to terminate the business relationship for good cause without notice shall remain unaffected. Examples of such good cause are repeated breaches of Vivid's terms and conditions, a serious one-time breach of Vivid's terms and conditions (including an attempted deception of Solaris or Vivid by a Customer knowingly providing false information), termination of the Services Agreement, or individual services provided by Solaris and to which Vivid provides access, or revocation of Customer's consent to the collection and use of data by Vivid.

Customer's right to access the Services offered by Vivid shall terminate if Solaris or Customer has terminated the business relationship between Solaris and Customer. In case of ordinary termination, Customer's right to access the Services offered by Vivid shall terminate upon expiry of the applicable notice period. In case of extraordinary termination, the Customer's right to access the services offered by Vivid shall terminate with immediate effect.

Contractual penalties are not provided for in the event of termination.

16. Applicable law and place of jurisdiction

German law shall apply to the relationship between the Customer and Vivid prior to the conclusion of the contract for the services offered by Vivid as well as to the contractual relationship between Vivid and the Customer, except for the agreement update process which is governed by the law at the place of residence of the customer. In addition, consumers can rely on the mandatory consumer protection laws of their country of residence.

Exclusive jurisdiction is with the German courts. There are exceptions for consumers who can sue (and be sued) in the place of their residence.

17. Complaints

The Customer may submit a complaint to Vivid via the chat function in the Vivid App, the online Formular or by letter to the above address of Vivid Money GmbH.

The European Commission has set up an online dispute resolution platform (ODR platform) at <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>. Consumers can use this ODR platform for the out-of-court settlement of disputes arising from online contracts with companies incorporated in the EU. .

According to Article L.612-1 of the French Consumer Code, it is recalled that "any consumer has the right to have recourse, free of charge, to a consumer mediator with a view to the amicable resolution of the dispute which opposes him to a professional. To this end, the professional guarantees the consumer the effective recourse to a consumer mediation system". For this reason, Vivid propose to the consumers, within the framework of litigations which would not have found resolution in an amicable way, the mediation of a mediator of the consumption, whose coordinates are the following ones:

- The European Consumer Centre (ECC)
<https://www.europe-consommateurs.eu/fr/accueil/>
- European Consumer Center France
 - Bahnhofplatz 3
 - D-77694 Kehl
 - Germany

It is reminded that mediation is not compulsory but only proposed in order to resolve disputes by avoiding recourse to justice.

For complaints that (also) involve Solaris, please refer also to the Solaris "Complaints Procedure" that is described here:
<https://www.solarisgroup.com/en/imprint/>.
